I. What a beautiful land!

The hilly landscape of Samogitia (or Lower Lithuania) is patterned with clear lakes and torrential rivers; it merges with quiet valleys, fertile fields and forests of Higher Lithuania.

Our region is very interesting and attractive. Šiauliai is a city in the North West of Lithuania, the roots of its origin dates back to the Battle of the Sun in 22, Sep 1236. Šiauliai was titled the city of the Sun due to its peculiar image: a bright Broadway, original and vivid cultural activities; the city is always young and full of life energy. There are about 15 000 people studying at Higher Schools in Šiauliai; about 2 700 of them study at Šiauliai State College.

Guests of the County as well as its inhabitants have a possibility to get acquainted with significant cultural monuments and famous places. There are museums, estates, mounds, more than 20 homesteads, natural monuments and parks in the region.

XIII. Funky Erasmus Rules

- ⇒ You must try traditional food. For example: cepelinai (made of potatoes and meat), šaltibarščiai (a cold borsch soup [very, very delicious]), kugelis (made of potatoes and meat) or kastinys (it is supposed to be eaten with boiled potatoes).
- ⇒ Rise up our economics making shopping days for instance: in Akropolis or Saulės miestas.
- ⇒ Don't go for a walk alone at night, because sometimes you can meet some unfriendly people.
- ⇒ Always smile for the receptionist of your dormitory.
- ⇒ Do sports – Erasmus lifestyle = pigs lifestyle.
- ⇒ Use every day, every minute for your memories – Erasmus happens only once in your life, find new friends, go out with them.
- ⇒ Do things you would never do in your hometown.
- ⇒ Eat more potatoes and meat than ever before in your life.
- ⇒ Use "Labas" instead of "Hello", it is way cooler.
- ⇒ You have to fall in love with LITHUANIAN.
- ⇒ Do not get caught by police being drunk, anywhere.
- ⇒ Goodbye and thankful present for your friends in Lithuania.
- ⇒ Do not be late, we hate to wait 30 minutes!
- ⇒ Remember, Maxima and Rimi is the best friend when you are hungry.
- ⇒ Don't worry about what people think, they don't do it very often.
- ⇒ Don't even try to understand why some people like to wear socks and flip-flop together.
- ⇒ Remember, if during the night you see drunk and smiling person feel free to go further, if only drunk better change the way.
- ⇒ Keep on partying with your friends: organize theme parties, crazy parties, alternative parties,; but make them always in your friends' flat.
- ⇒ Bring your Erasmus spirit among your friends: get them drunk of independence, dissipation and fun.
- ⇒ Erasmus students generally come back home in December/January or in May/June: for the first group I'm sorry but you will get the syndrome. For the second: enjoy the summer at least.

XV. Additional information about the City

In the city you can see....

7 OBJECTS OF SUN

1. Sculpture "Dawn"

Address: The intersection of Ausros alley and Kastonu Alley

A new sculpture entitled Dawn by D. Matulaitė was erected quite recently. The idea that was born two decades ago and received quite opposing opinion became a reality in 2003. The sculpture symbolizes the Aušra (Dawn) Movement a political and literary group of Lithuanian intellectuals of the 1880s 1890s. They used to publish a magazine called Aušra (1883-1886), and the organization was named after it.

2. Šiauliai Cathedral of the Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul

Address: Aušros str. 3

This Renaissance-style cathedral has been devastated by wars, fires and storms, but with every reconstruction it practically remained the same as it was when built at the beginning of the 17th century - stuccoed in white, with a very big tower and red-tiled roof. The southern wall of the cathedral is decorated with one of the oldest sundials in Lithuania and accurately shows local time.

3. "Solar Disks" Fountain

Address: Resurrection Square, in front of the Šiauliai Municipal Government Building, Vasario 16-osios St. 62

Celebrating the 770th anniversary of Šiauliai, the renovated square with the fountain "Solar Disks" was reopened on 1 October 2006. The creator of the fountain was Gintautas Lukošaitis.

4. Sundial Square

Address: Ežero St. - St. Šalkauskio St.

The extraordinary 750th anniversary of the city's existence in 1986 motivated the proper acknowledgment of the significance of this date. Centrepiece of Sundial Square is the gilded and bronze-ornamented decorative sculpture Šaulys (Archer) by Stanislovas Kuzma. It is almost four metres high. The sculpture, often referred to as the Golden Boy, and the numbers 12, 3 and 6, indicating the hours and infused into the pavement of the square in a way unify the three symbols of Šiauliai: the sun, representing the Battle of the Sun that took place on the city grounds, the archer that the city's name derives from, and the time that has passed since the name of the city was mentioned for the first time (in 1236). It is the highest sundial in Lithuania.

5. Monument in Sladuve Park for Sun Battle

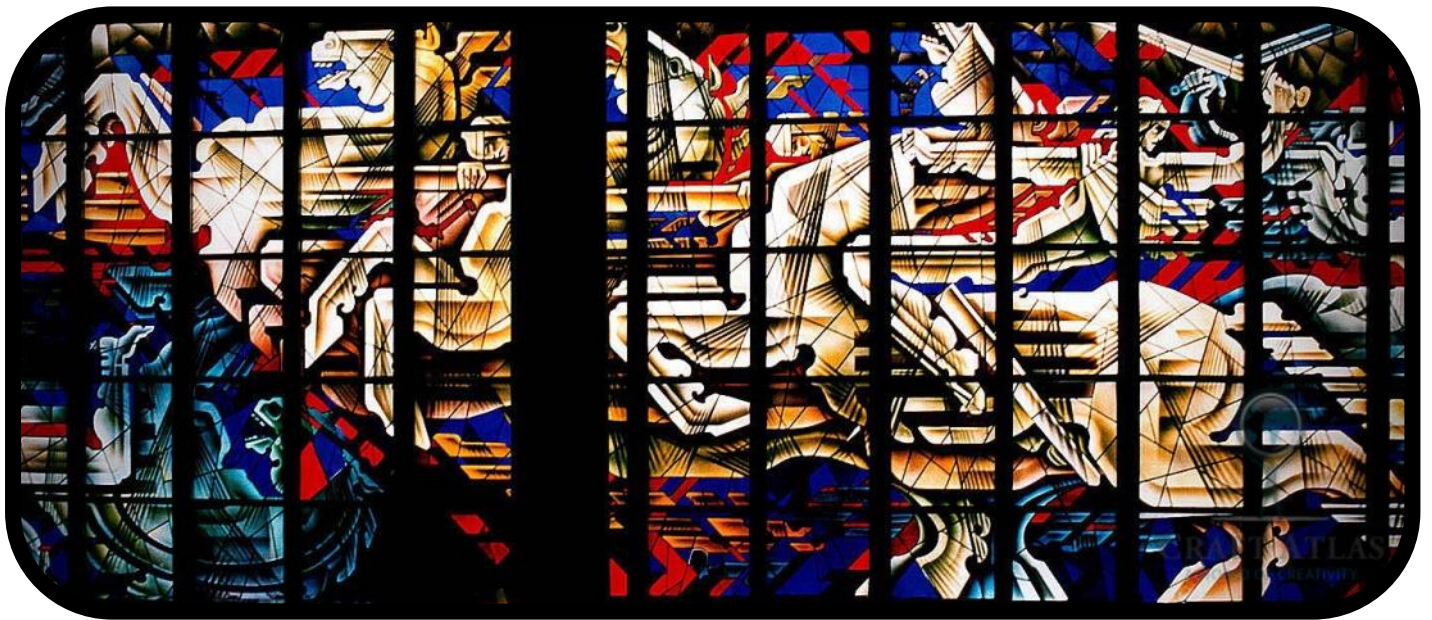

Monument built to remember a Sun Battle. The Sun Battle of 1236, victory of the Samogitians over the Teutonic Order

6. "Cockerel" Clock Square

Address: Intersection of Vilniaus and Tilžės Streets

In 2003, the city of Šiauliai was celebrating its 767th anniversary, and one of its renewed symbols, the Cockerel, crowed: "Come on a date". Couples in love or business people agree to meet here: "We'll meet at the Cockerel". Now, the city symbol not only crows, but it also greets passers-by: "Welcome to Šiauliai." The greeting is uttered in English, German, French, Russian, Spanish, Esperanto, Hebrew, Swedish, Romany, and other languages

7. Stained Glass Window, "The Battle of the Sun"

Address: Saulė (The Sun) Concert hall, Tilžės St. 140

Lithuania's biggest stained glass window, "The Battle of the Sun", by Professor Kazys Morkūnas, is situated in the "Sun" concert hall. Its width is 200 square metres (length - 52 m.). It depicts the 1236 battle between the Lithuanian and Livonian Order armies and commemorates the 750th anniversary since the name of Šiauliai was first mentioned in historical chronicles.

MUSEUMS

Chaimas Frenkelis Villa

Address: Vilniaus Street 74, Šiauliai

The restored Chaimas Frenkelis Villa with a park, and a fountain located in it, is a very exclusive site in Šiauliai city. The Villa is unique, one of only a few in Lithuania constructed in early 20th century buildings in the Art Nouveau (Modern, Secession, Jugend) architectural style. Elements of different styles interweave in decoration of this State protected cultural monument's facades, authentic interior fascinates the visitors with ornate wooden decorations, stucco works, and imposing fragments of frescos.

Žaliūkių Village Miller's Farmstead

Address: Architektų St. 73, Šiauliai

A space for ethnoculture, customs and traditions, activities and merry-making is surrounded by modern city. There was recreated miller's farmhouse and restored the only survived in Šiauliai construction of Lithuanian traditional wooden architecture from the 2nd part of the 19th c. – Žaliūkių Windmill. All-year-round the everyday life of Miller's family – grain grinding, bread baking – is going on; sometimes it is spiced by Lithuanian traditional calendar celebrations.

Šiauliai Aušros Museum Education Center

Address: Aušros Av. 47, Šiauliai

This Šiauliai Aušros Museum's subdivision is a well-liked centre for educational activities. Archaeological and Ethnographic expositions reveal the most ancient history of Šiauliai area, present peasant way and view of life in Samogitia and North Lithuania. The stylized historic surrounding perfectly fits for educational activities aimed to cognize the past.

Bicycle Museum

Address: Vilniaus Street 139, Šiauliai

In 1980 the only one this type museum in Lithuania was established at Šiauliai Bicycle and Engine Factory "Vairas". In 1993, it was given over to Šiauliai Aušros Museum. Exposition of Museum presents history of birth and development of a bicycle – one of the most ancient and most popular means of communication, sports, ecological means of transportation. In 2011, Bicycle Museum's exposition was refreshed with newly acquired the 5.000.000th bicycle produced by Baltik Vairas factory.

Radio and Television Museum

Address: Vilniaus Street 174, Šiauliai

The Museum was established in 1982 on initiative of local ethnographer Jonas Rimkevičius, under the wardship of Šiauliai Television Plant. In 1994, it became a part of Šiauliai Aušros Museum. The Museum reveals the development of sound and view recall, telecommunication devices, helps to get acquainted and understand the principles and potential of them, presents collections of rare exhibits, organizes exhibitions on variable occasions concerning radio and television history.

Museum displays the 19th–20th c. symphonion, phonograph, gramophones, record-players, radio-receivers, first TV-sets – both Lithuanian and the foreign ones. Visitors are welcome to listen to the sounds of musical box (early 19 th c.), vinyl records played by mechanical record-player, to send SOS or love signal using Morse code, to work with telegraph apparatus.

Photography Museum

Address: Vilniaus Street 140, Šiauliai

The only in Lithuania museum dealing with art and technology of photography, an important centre for photographs safeguarding and representation. Photography Museum established in 1973, was one of the first specialized museums in Eastern and Middle Europe, reflecting art and technology of photography. The Museum is located in authentic, modern to its time building, constructed during the Interwar period (3–4th dec., 20th c.), in the very centre of the city. A modern gallery, educational space and photo laboratory, reading room and information centre are established in the reconstructed museum; souvenir and publications shop, summer café in the outdoor roof terrace and city panoramic view with "camera obscura" are working here. New museum exposition, which is planned to be open in 2015, will be constantly changing and renewing. Each visitor will have a possibility to become an active participant and creator of exposition.

Museum of Cats

Address: Žuvininkų Street 18, Šiauliai

Vanda Kavaliauskiene founded the museum on The 17th of May 1990. She had been collecting exhibits for the museum many years. The first exhibit – little black wooden cat was brought from Poland in 1962.

There are over 4 000 exhibits in the museum. Cats in stained glass, greet visitors on stair handrails, on the lamps, etc.

Chocolate Museum

Address: Tilžės str. 133, Šiauliai

Take a look at nearly four millennia-long history of chocolate. Learn how it was made by the Maya and Aztec peoples, and how chocolate and its consuming traditions have changed since then. Find out about the first chocolate and candy factories in Lithuania and take a closer look at RŪTA, the oldest operating candy factory in the country.

Railway Museum

The Museum was founded on September 4, 1971 in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of Šiauliai Railroad Station. The initiator behind the Museum's founding was the then head of the Šiauliai Railroad Station, A. Petuchovskis.

At the exposition, there are books about railroads, railroad techniques, and means of technology; signal lanterns used in the past, means of communication; examples of railroad tracks produced in various European countries; the everyday items used by railroad workers, coins, and stamps.

HILL OF CROSSES

The Hill of Crosses has about 100 000 crosses. It is said that first crosses were erected here by the next-of-kin of the rebels that fell in the 1831 rebellion. The Hill of Crosses is an historical architectural monument, it is a unique composition of folk art. The Hill of crosses attracts people with its peace, spirituality, authenticity and sacred nature. The hill of crosses was visited by Pope John Paul II. Even more crosses appeared after the rebellion in 1863. At that time the traditions of visiting and erecting crosses on the hill of crosses were being formed. The Hill of crosses became a place of vows in Lithuania. In the beginning of the 20th century, the hill was already quite well known. It was being visited by a lot of people, and services and feasts were taking place here. Now it has about 100 000 crosses.

OTHER PLACES TO VISIT

If you want to hear scary stories, see scary places go to the Old City Cemetery in Ežero str.

One of our newest sculptures in the city is „The Fox“, it is located near the lake Talkša.

Notice small sculptures of all sorts of animals in the pedestrian street, and not only in the street, but also on the rooftops of the buildings.

The Arch, the intersection of Vilniaus Str, and Vasario 16-osios str. The special thing about this arch is that if you think of a wish and pass under the arch, your wish will come true. However, if you forget about it and walk back under the arch, your wish will vanish into thin air.

Out in the City!
